Helpful hints of how to do stuff

As you read more from books not authored by myself you will want to know how to find the quotes they used to read it in full context. We will start with how to use Adobe Reader for books that you already have on this disk. For those unfamiliar with Adobe Reader I will explain some basic functions.

Go to Page Number

See the number 1 / 4 in the picture above.

Change Font Size

If the text is too small change the font size. In the picture above the 147% is the font size. That is probably too big. Change this to 100%

Use the Search Function

On my toolbar there is a magnifying glass I can click on to make the search box appear. On some versions there is a “Find” Box or try (control + F). I copy a few words of the quote that I am trying to find and paste it into the box. Then push “Enter”, if the first result is not it I click “Next” until I see the quote I am looking for.

I have found sometimes punctuation and other items in the text have prevented me from finding the quote I am looking for. Therefore I will try a few selections of words from the same paragraph until I find my quote.

When I know the page number in the actual book (not the Adobe Reader page number) sometimes I will scroll and look for that. Of course if the same book has been printed more than once just a change in format will change the actual page number.

Below are a couple of links that might explain this a little clearer for you.

https://helpx.adobe.com/reader/using/save-view-search-pdfs.html#find_information_in_a_pdf

Print – Click on the printer on the toolbar or else you can usually find this under “file” Unless you want to print the whole book make sure you specify what pages to print.

Copy and Paste: You may want to Copy just certain pages to paste into your word processor to edit or add your own notes to personalize it for whoever you are going to share it with. To do this simply highlight the text. Left click with your mouse and scroll; then right click and choose copy. Then go to your word processor and paste. Left click and choose “paste” (Control + V)

How to find more references

I have found a lot of books simply by using Google to search for the title of the book or author. Add PDF at the end of your search term to find PDF books. Or add MP3 at the end of your search term to find audio files. Archive.org has a lot of old books, but one can get lost searching there sometimes. I have at times found it was easier to use Google for the name of the Book or Author and add “Archive” to the end of my search term.

Following are some more places to try looking for books and audio files.

LOOK HERE FOR MORE BOOKS

<http://www.ccel.org/> Christian Classics Ethereal Library

<https://archive.org/web/> The Way Back Machine – Enter an Internet website address and you can choose a date in time to go back and view how the website was back then. This is how I found the “Should you Believe in the Trinity” pamphlet after the Watchtower removed it from their website. Go to the existing websites Home page and copy the location from the address bar then go here and paste it into the Way Back Machine.

<https://archive.org/> - Enter the name of an old book or publication that you are looking for in the search bar. I have also found books here using Google and adding archive at the end of the search term. Sometimes that is easier than searching within archive.org itself.

List of watchtower publications found at archive.org

<http://www.gutenberg.org/> Online Library where both Christian and Cult books can be found.

<http://www.ntslibrary.com/> Online Christian Library

<http://masoniclibrary.com/books/> (a lot of Mason Books)

<http://avoidjw.org/books/> A number of Jehovah Witness Books

Look here for MP3 Audio files

<http://server.firefighters.org/> Firefighters for Christ – Tons of Christian messages

<http://www.sermonaudio.com/main.asp> - Lots of Christian messages

(Type something like “Mormon” into search box here to find what you are looking for)
